PBS presents the ninth season of 'Call the Midwife'

By Rachel Jones
TV Media

PBS's hit series "Call the Midwife" reminds us that there is a time to be born, a time to die and a time for everything in between when Season 9 premieres Sunday, March 29, on PBS.

The show follows a group of midwives who work at the Nonnatus House and the nuns of the Order of St. Raymund Nonnatus, who live there. The first season was set in 1957, but this ninth installment brings us up to the mid-1960s, a time of social change and upheaval. As the world changes around them, the nurses and nuns of Nonnatus house team up to serve local families in the fictional area of Poplar, London.

Among the team of midwives is the newly sober Trixie Franklin (Helen George, "The Three Musketeers," 2011), the prickly Phyllis Crane (Linda Bassett, "Calendar Girls," 2005), the industrious Valerie Dyer (Jennifer Kirby, "RSC Live: Henry V," 2015) and, one of the newest nurses at Nonnatus house, the resolute Lucille Anderson (Leonie Elliott, "Black Mirror"), the convent's first black nurse. The nuns and nurses of Nonnatus house are led by Sister-in-Charge Julienne (Jenny Agutter, "Logan's Run," 1976), whose wisdom, kindness and steady hand have helped many of the sisters, midwives and townspeople through difficult times.

The show is based on the Midwife Trilogy, a memoir collection by real-life British nurse Jennifer Worth. The book series consists of "Call the Midwife," "Shadows of the Workhouse" and "Farewell to the East End." Much like the show, the books follow Worth as she worked as a nurse for a Whitechapel hospital alongside a group of Anglican nuns from the Sisters of St. John the Divine. Worth focused her work on low-income women and families in the area.

It's no secret that the "Call the Midwife" series has effects that reach far beyond entertainment. The characters' positive perspectives and empathetic attitudes have shined a light on female struggles and brought the stories of many forgotten women back into the public consciousness. The show has informed viewers about major health issues and good birthing practices, and it has been used to showcase midwifery, which is often misunderstood, as a credible and important career.

Most notably, the drama has educated viewers by featuring diseases and encouraging vaccination, and some experts attribute a rise in vaccination rates to the effect of the show. Due to its overwhelming popularity and critical acclaim, the series has been renewed for at least two more seasons, through 2022.

Hasan Minhaj is back with a new volume of his talk show

WHAT'S NEW ON NETFLIX

"Patriot Act with Hasan Minhaj" Volume 6

Comedian Hasan Minhaj ("The Daily Show") returns for the sixth volume of his political talk show coming to Netflix on Sunday, March 29. Despite being first and foremost a comedy series, it's not just political satire. Minhaj delivers his unique perspective on global and political issues and works to positively impact the world with comedy that has both depth and sincerity. While the show may sound like an extended version of a Stephen Colbert ("The Late Show with Stephen Colbert") monologue, Minhaj's series is based less on opinion and more on hard facts. He makes sure he can explain the nuances of serious subjects by dedicating each half-hour segment to a single topic, whether it be police brutality, the environmental impact of the fashion industry, or, of course, political topics like his in-depth look at Canadian Prime Minister Justin Trudeau. With the current turbulence in both the political climate and global economy, Minhaj is sure to have lots of new and interesting issues to dig into. Don't miss the premiere of the latest installment.

WHAT'S NEW ON HULU

"Archer" Season 10

The latest season of this long-running spy comedy makes its debut Sunday, March 29.

This adult animated sitcom follows the (mis) adventures of a team of somewhat dysfunctional secret agents. The show centers on the suave agent Sterling Archer (H. Jon Benjamin, "Bob's Burgers") as he works for the International Secret Intelligence Service (ISIS) in New York. His team includes his emotionally distant mother and ISIS director, Malory (Jessica Walter, "Arrested Development"); her crazy assistant, Cheryl (Judy Greer, "Kidding"); his on-and-off girlfriend and fellow agent, Lana (Aisha Tyler, "Criminal Minds"); the flamboyantly gay bomb specialist, Ray (Adam Reed, "Sealab 2021"); mild-mannered agent Cyril (Chris Parnell, "Rick and Morty"); eccentric scientist Dr. Krieger (Lucky Yates, "American Dirtbags," 2015); and the head of human resources at ISIS, Pam (Amber Nash, "Frisky Dingo"). As we enter Season 10, Archer is still in a coma after being shot at the end of Season 7, and in his subconscious, the team becomes a crew on a spaceship. The characters are redefined as this season, subtitled "Archer: 1999," spoofs the classic clichés of science fiction.

Brandon Micheal Hall and Violetta Beane in "God Friended Me"

VICE

SHOW 5 p.m.

Fearless, on-the-ground reporting made this series synonymous with exposing the underreported. Now returning for an eighth season, this team of dedicated reporters - including Paola Ramos and Isobel Yeung - is bringing audiences back to the frontlines.

God Friended Me

KGMB 7 p.m.

Worried about hurting Ali's (Javicia Leslie) chances as a drug trial candidate, Miles (Brandon Micheal Hall) is reluctant to help when the God Account suggests the administrator's daughter as a friend. Taylor Richardson guest stars in this new episode.

Bob Odenkirk in "Better Call Saul"

Trumbo
SHOW 11:20 a.m.
This Academy Award-nominated biography stars Bryan Cranston as screenwriter Dalton Trumbo. The drama chronicles the true story of Trumbo and the "Hollywood Blacklist" case against communist sympathizers in the late 1940s. Helen Mirren and Diane Lane star.

Better Call Saul
AMC 6 p.m.
Kim (Rhea Seehorn) sets the record straight, but Jimmy (Bob Odenkirk) is compromised by his clients in this new episode. Meanwhile, Gus (Giancarlo Esposito) attempts to calm the war that he is facing on all sides by placating multiple parties.

Jane Leives in "The Resident"

The Resident
KHON 7 p.m.
Nic (Emily VanCamp) gets put into a surgical rotation with Cain (Morris Chestnut) in this rebroadcast. Meanwhile, it's up to the staff at Chastain to save an innocent man when a police officer brings an injured criminal he caught in the act into the ER.

Mixed-ish
KITV 8 p.m.
Rainbow (Arica Himmel) begins to feel self-conscious about her hair when her teacher tells her that she should make sure her hair is "neat" for picture day in a rebroadcast of this popular spinoff series. Tika Sumpter and Mark-Paul Gosselaar also star.

Haneefah Wood in "Schooled"

Forged in Fire HIST 6 p.m.

Don't miss this episode if you are a fan of "Game of Thrones." Once passing the initial test of crafting daggers in a coal forge, the top two smiths will return home to craft the famous weapon used by Arya Stark (Maisie Williams).

Schooled KITV 7:30 p.m.

Set in the '90s, this heartfelt teacher comedy focuses on the lives of a group of school faculty members as they attempt to fulfill their own dreams while helping kids reach for theirs. Tim Meadows, AJ Michalka and Haneefah Wood star.

Matt LeBlanc and Stacy Keach in "Man With a Plan"

Man With a Plan
KGMB 7:30 p.m.

Matt LeBlanc is back in the Season 4 premiere of this family comedy. In last season's finale, Adam (LeBlanc) and the others held an intervention for Lowell (Matt Cook). Liza Snyder, Kevin Nealon and Grace Kaufman also star.

How to Get Away With Murder
KITV 9 p.m.

Tune in for the gripping return of this series' final season. The truth about who killed Asher (Matt McGorry) and Annalise (Viola Davis) will be revealed. Find out whether or not you really can get away with murder as this mystery comes to an end.

Alex O'Loughlin as seen in "Hawaii Five-0"

Pitch Black SYFY 12:30 p.m.

Get lost in space in this film about a group of marooned space travelers fighting to survive while abandoned on a seemingly lifeless, sun-scorched world. This sci-fi disaster-thriller stars Vin Diesel, Cole Hauser, Radha Mitchel and Keith David.

Hawaii Five-0 KGMB 8 p.m.

Say "Aloha" to the cast of this long-running series in its two-part finale. William Sadler, James Marsters and Mark Dacascos reappear as John McGarrett, Victor Hesse and Wo Fat in this send off of Lieutenant Commander Steve McGarrett (Alex O'Loughlin).

A scene from "Say Yes to the Dress: Atlanta"

Barbershop SHOW 11:45 a.m.
Calvin (Ice Cube) never wanted to take over the family business, so when a shady loan shark offers to take it from him, he jumps at the opportunity. However, it isn't long before he realizes the importance of the shop for his family and neighborhood.

Say Yes to the Dress: Atlanta TLC 8 p.m.

Justin and Bryant want their bridesmaids all to be happy with a unique dress in this new episode, but after meeting with Lori Allen and Monte Durham, the grooms realize their sophisticated vision is looking more like a hot mess.
